Prominent Men to Address
Convention of National Editorial Body.

MISSOULA, Mont., July 18.—Editors and publishers from all parts of the United States are here in readiness for the opening session Wednesday of the annual convention of the National Editorial Association.

Addresses by men of national prominence, discussions of present-day newspaper problems and entertainment features including a war pageant and two mountain trips will be combined in the four-day program which will keep the visitors busy until Saturday night.

A gigantic military spectacle staged by the war department and depicting the battle of Chateau Thierry will be held south of the Missoula fairgrounds Friday evening. Heavy artillery, tanks, airplanes and other instruments of modern warfare will be brought into play during the reproduction of the famous engagement. General Morton, commander of the ninth corps area, with headquarters at San Francisco, will be in command and will also address the convention at its Friday session.

Saturday, the final day of the convention, will be given over to a trip through the Bitter Root valley, famous fruit and grain producing region of Montana.

Gov. Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, Mayor W. H. Hanson of Missoula and P. H. Snodden, president of the Montana Press association, will deliver addresses of welcome at the opening session of the convention which will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Elk's hall. Responses on behalf of the National Editorial Association, will be made by Wallace Odell of Tarrytown, N. Y.

U. S. BUYS TIRES TO USE IN MAIL FLEET

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By I. N. S.)—More than $200,000 worth of tires have been purchased by the government for use in the event it becomes necessary to substitute automobile trucks in the transportation of mail as a result of the rail strike, the postoffice department announced today.

The tires were purchased, officials said, "as a matter of preparedness and economy." They are being distributed over a wide area to afford protection to all sections should it become necessary to resort to motor trucks to keep the mails moving.

SCREEN ACTRESS HURT IN FALL FROM HORSE

JACKSON, Wyo., July 18.—(By I. N. S.)—Mary Miles Minter, petite screen star, is recovering today from severe injuries she suffered here when thrown from a horse. Miss Minter, astride a mount who was using in a picture in which she is being starred, was galloping down the Main Street of Jackson when the animal suddenly shied and bucked the youthful rider off. Tom Moore, movie actor, was riding by her side. He and other film folk hurriedly rendered first aid. She suffered a badly lacerated shoulder and painful bruises. Bleeding profusely the young star smilingly called "hello, Tom," as Tom Moore lifted her, half unconscious, and carried her to a nearby drug store.

She will be back at work on her picture in a few days, her director announced.

PRINCE OF WALES IS COUSIN'S BEST MAN

LONDON, July 18.—(By I. N. S.)—The Prince of Wales was best man today at the wedding of Prince Louis Mountbatten, nephew of King George and Mrs. Edwina, Ashley, richest girl in Great Britain.

King George, Queen Mary, Viscountess Lascelles and other members of the royal family were present.

It was announced that the bride and groom would postpone their honeymoon until autumn when they will go to the United States.

Lord Mountbatten was originally known as Lord Rattenberg, but owing to the hostility of the British to all things German in wartime he had his name changed.

Miss Ashley is the daughter of the late Lieut. W. W. Ashley, one of the richest men in England.

"Count" Yaselli, Federal Agent, Charged with Graft

CHICAGO, July 18.—"Count" William D. Yaselli, dashing prohibition agent, whose activities recently resulted in many temporary suspensions against the city's "gay white way" was accused of being "out after the jack" in a petition seeking to have set aside an injunction against the Green Mill Gardens.

In affidavits accompanying the petition are charges that Yaselli agreed to "fix" the case and stop the injunction for $5,000.

It is also charged that Yaselli had been recommended for dismissal because of "expense padding and embezzlement" previous to his spectacular raids here.

There are on an average of 761 people to every square mile in England.

Here's the Wreck of the Atlantic City Flier

Passengers of the Atlantic City Flier, which was wrecked near Atlantic City, were killed and more than 50 injured. Investigators say the switch at the Junction had been improperly set, sending the flier onto a sidetrack and a sharp curve which threw it from the rails. John De Walt, 67-year-old towerman at the Junction, was hysterical after the crash.

UNIDENTIFIED PERSON LEAVES LIVE PACKAGE

NEW YORK, July 18.—(By I. N. S.)—Early this morning an unidentified person called Miss Elizabeth Brower at her Brooklyn residence by telephone and said:

"A package will arrive; take good care of it."

Fuzzed, Miss Brower told the family about the mysterious message. They advised her to pay no attention to it.

Then at 2:00 a. m. the family was awakened by a crying sound in the hallway. A week-old infant, wrapped in a white blanket, was found and to the covering was pinned this note, signed "a friend!":

"Dear Elizabeth: It is with great sorrow that I had to do anything like this. I am just out of a hospital and haven't seen my husband for three months. I seem to know that you will take care of the child. Please have him baptized. I will make good to you for your care. I will make myself known to you when I call in a week. For God's sake don't turn him away. I stood on the street a long time before I could do this. The baby is a week old. I have no money but expect to get work soon and then I will repay you."

The baby was fully dressed and had a pacifier in its mouth. And it was crying lustily—very lustily, despite the pacifier. Police were called and the baby taken to King's county hospital. Miss Brower told detectives she had formerly worked in an office with other girls—who frequently told their troubles—and she presumed that one of those was the mother of the child, but could not say which one it might be.

"Shorter Bobbed Hair" Would Cost Beauty of Sex," Professor Avers

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 18.—(By I. N. S.)—Bobbed hair is a transitory phenomenon and will be forgotten in 10 years.

Prof. O. A. Jenks of the department of anthropology, University of Minnesota, who lectured on "evolution" here today, declared: "Hair is as short now as it ever will be. Dr. Jenks declared. If it is cut any shorter women will lose their attractiveness and the race will die out, he said."

Bobbed hair is a manifestation of woman's desire to escape from the limitations of sex convention, said to put herself on a plane of companionship with man, Dr. Jenks asserted.

RIOT TAKES PLACE IN MEXICAN CHURCH CAMP

NOGALES, Ariz., July 18.—(By U. P.)—A battle between Catholic and Socialist workmen staged in a camp church at La Paz, in the Matamoros Mineral district of Mexico, in which 35 were killed and nearly 100 wounded, was described in advices received here today.

Two priests, who were lecturing in the camp on economic topics, invited the socialists into the church, and in the midst of the talk a disturbance occurred which caused some one to spread the alarm among Catholic workmen that the priests had been attacked.

Armed Catholics at once invaded the church and a riot involving the entire camp, resulted.

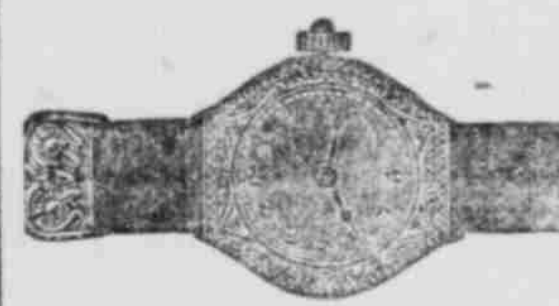

Troops called to the scene arrived after the violence had ceased, but still patrol the district.
